

Cultural Entrepreneurship in Bath/Bristol

Are you a creative worker working from Bath / Bristol in one or more of the following fields?

- Advertising
- Software/Computer Games and electronic Publishing
- Music/ Film/Radio and Television
- Visual/Performing Arts
- Video / Photography

You are invited to participate in a research that explores the ways in which Bath and Bristol function as creative hubs that encourage cultural entrepreneurship, conducted by Aurelia Ayisi, student researcher at BathSpa University.

I am keen to hear from cultural workers who are at least 18 years old and working from Bath/Bristol in the aforementioned fields.

The research will involve a 20 to 30 minutes interview about your creative work.

If you would like to participate or obtain more information about the research, please contact:
